

MR. N. COUNGEAU'S RESIDENCE ON BRIBIE ISLAND.
—R. J. Davis photo.

ON BRIBIE ISLAND.
The pretty approach to Mr. N. Coungeau's residence from the jetty.
—R. J. Davis photo.

THE NEW STATE SCHOOL AT NEWTOWN, TOOWOOMBA.
The official opening took place on October 4.
—C. W. Callaghan photo.

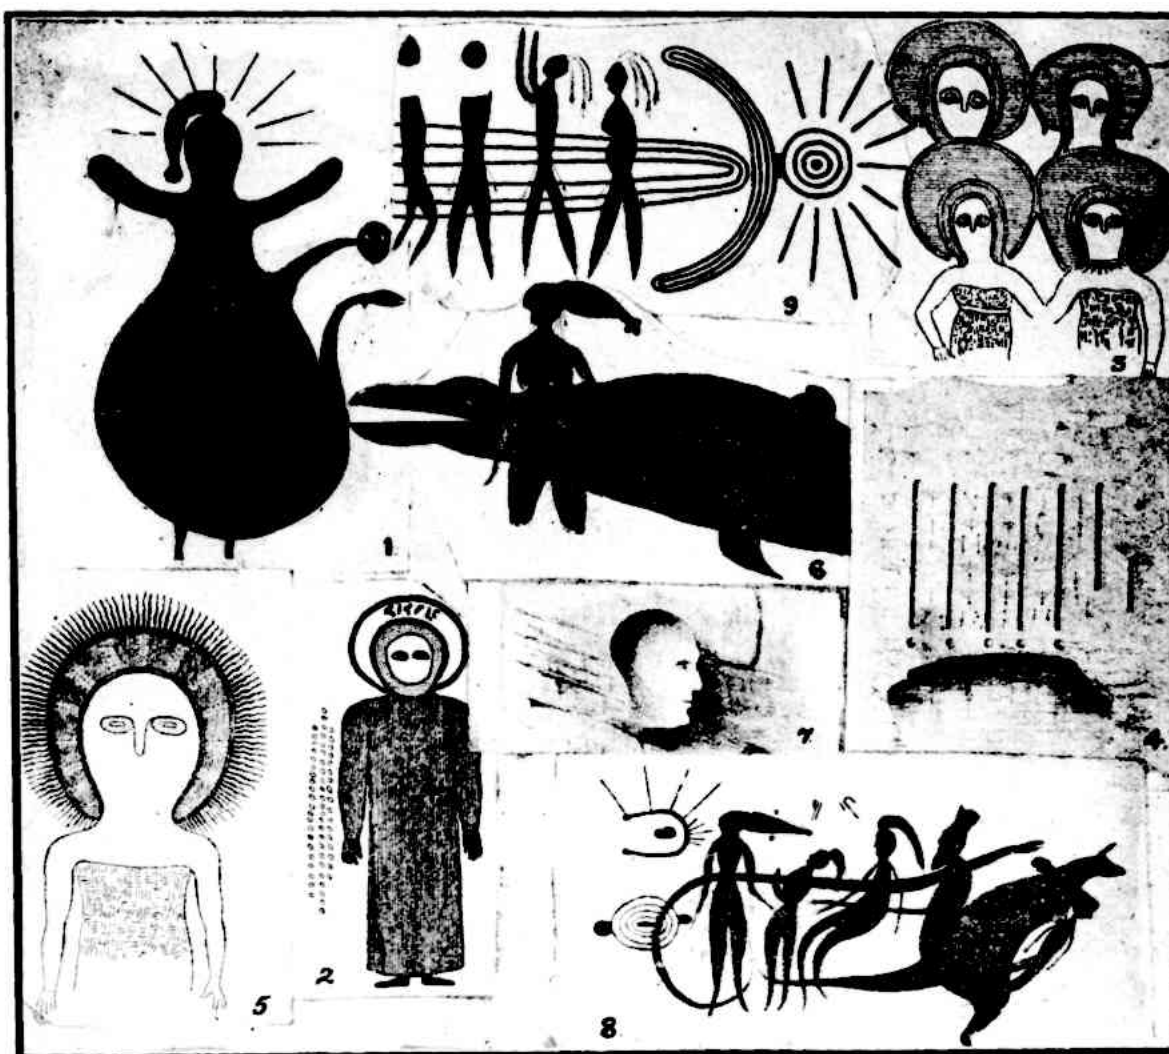

FROM THE ASHES.
The Darling Downs Co-operative Bacon Company's factory at Toowoomba, rebuilt since its destruction by fire in January.
—C. W. Callaghan photo.

A TRIPLE WINNER.
Mr. E. J. Beardmore's King Grist, winner of the Bracelet, President's Trophy, and Champion Stakes at the St. George Amateur Picnic Race Club's meeting.
—F. Gilmour photo.

A MILITARY WEDDING AT IPSWICH.
Major Percival Savage and Miss Marjorie Hall, both members of well-known Ipswich families, were married on September 30 in St. Paul's Church. The bridegroom was a soldier in the great war, and on leaving the church the bridal pair were accorded a guard of honour formed of brother officers. The party includes the bride and bridegroom, Misses Una Syme, Marian Morrison, and Joyce Hall (bridesmaids), and Lieutenant Keith Hall, Lieutenant S. J. Harris, and Sub-lieutenant G. Mocatta (groomsmen).
—F. W. Whitehead photo.

AUSTRALIA AND EGYPT.—CORRELATED SYMBOLS.
These strange designs represent figures found on rocks and in caves in Northern Australia. They are introduced to illustrate the contentions of the author of our new serial story, "Koi: the Thing without any Bones," which is begun in this issue. An explanation of the figures appears on page 40.